AC04.77	Legislative Bills
AC04.78	Clippings

The papers in the following six file folders, AC04.79-AC04.84, concern the negotiations between SAR and the Museum of New Mexico concerning the breakup of their joint collection. The last one, AC04.84, contains miscellaneous material arranged chronologically from 1947 to 1982. It includes such varied topics as the development of an Indian museum, a Maya Exhibit organized by the Museum of Fine Arts, a Southwest Spanish Textiles exhibit at the Museum of International Folk Art, discussions concerning the governing policy for the Laboratory of Anthropology and the transfer of human skeletal material from the Laboratory to the Maxwell Museum of Anthropology at the University of New Mexico, tensions between the Board of Regents for the MNM and SAR, and concerns about the use of materials by the MNM that SAR believed it owned.

AC04.79	Museum of New Mexico 1960-1982
AC04.80	Museum of New Mexico 1983-
AC04.81	Museum of New Mexico: Museum of International Folk Art
AC04.82	SAR/MNM Task Force: Background on Collections 1976-1996
AC04.83	Information Memorandum on Museum of New Mexico, a Legislative Finance Committee Report, 1973
AC04.84	Miscellaneous Materials 1947-1982

The following 3 folders were added to this archival collection in 2019. The report “supported by The Fund of the Four Directions” lists Douglas Schwartz, President; Duane Anderson; Janet Stoker on the title page and is dated January 1994

AC04.85	The Rockefeller-initiated out-of-custody collections of the School of American Research: I: Background
AC04.86	The Rockefeller-initiated out-of-custody collections of the School of American Research: II: Options
AC04.87	The Rockefeller-initiated out-of-custody collections of the School of American Research: III: Future Directions

The materials in Boxes 11-22 are primarily records related to the separation of collections between the School of American Research and the Museum of New Mexico. In addition to the separate velobound binders related to specific collections, there are miscellaneous pages including lists of missing photocopies of computer reports of archaeological collections.
